

Third-Year Fellows

AG Nuwan Perera, MD

Pronouns: He/Him

Residency program: UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh

Hometown: Atlanta, GA

Favorite thing about PGH: Top 20 city to live in the US. Over the 14 years I've been here the food scene has become incredible!

Thomas (TJ) McMorrow, MD

Pronouns: He/Him

Residency program: Johns Hopkins Hospital

Hometown: Peoria, IL

Favorite thing about PGH: Lots of family friendly breweries to visit and endless new restaurants to try!

Veronica Renov, MD

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: Children's Hospital Los Angeles

Hometown: Los Angeles, CA

Favorite thing about PGH: The walkable neighborhoods and how many parks there are to explore!

Second-Year Fellows

Elif Soysal Pintauro, MD

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh

Hometown: Istanbul, Turkey

Favorite thing about PGH: I love the city's industrial history, and its tight-knit community. The diverse food scene always offers something new to discover, and the city's affordability makes it a great place to train in!

Lindsay Ercole, DO

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: UT Health San Antonio

Hometown: St. Louis, MO

Favorite thing about PGH: Access to a variety of parks and walkable neighborhoods.

Anelah McGinness, MD

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: UCSF Children's Hospital Oakland (CHO)

Hometown: Lake Elsinore, CA

Favorite thing about PGH: Pittsburgh is where dreams come true.

First-Year Fellows

Angeliz Caro Monroig, MD

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

Hometown: Mayaguez, PR

Favorite thing about PGH: My favorite thing about Pittsburgh is the people! Both within and outside of CHP, people have been so welcoming and kind. I also love all the parks in the city and surrounding areas!

Ji Young Lee, MD

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh

Hometown: Seoul, South Korea

Favorite thing about PGH: Summer farmers market, Three Rivers Heritage Trail

Ursula Parlin, MD

Pronouns: She/Her

Residency program: UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh

Hometown: Edinboro, PA

Favorite thing about PGH: There's so much to love about Pittsburgh! I think my favorite thing is all the green spaces - I love the beautiful parks and the trail by the river. I also appreciate that Pittsburgh has so much going on while remaining affordable - lots of good restaurants, fun concerts, neighborhoods festivals, and so much more.

